

In the middle of nowhere

Falk Fetzer (02/2007)

Sitting by the side of the road in the middle of nowhere
Waiting for your fancy new car who will drive me home
Dreaming of you, the last night in the middle of nowhere
Where you picked me up and took me down to blue

As you stopped by the side of the road in the middle of nowhere
In you're pretty shiny big brand new bloody red car
Ask me for the next motel room in the middle of nowhere
And you picked me up and took me down to blue

The hole of the night was shining so bright
My heart climbed higher your mind was so tight

Sitting by the side of the road in the middle of nowhere
Waiting for an fancy new car who will drive me home
Dreaming of you, the last night in the middle of nowhere
Where I picked you up and took you down to blue
